"How much do I love thee?
Let me count the ways."
E. Browning

To Mrs. Martin, our commercial teacher who has given to us so much of her time and patience, we the Senior Class of '55 dedicate our "Terrace Memiors". Our sincere thanks for her help in making our Junior Prom and Yearbook a big success.

The Freshmen Class elected as their officers: President, Raymond Manthe; Vice-President, Howard Haack; Secretary-Treasurer, Josevius Johnson; and Student Council Representative, Wilbur Reigel. Mr. Mc Laughlin was our class advisor.

Our Freshmen initiation was something we'll never forget. After we were through with our initiation stunts there was dancing for everyone.

Freshmen Plays were a joy and a headache--all twelve of them. I think everyone will agree that now that they're over, they certainly were fun.

We are looking forward to being Sophomores next year.

Sophomore Class

Sophomore class officers for the year were: President, Nona Lee Swalheim; Vice President, Gerald Ellingson; and Secretary-Treasurer, Keith Englesby. Lois Johnson was our Student Council Representative. Mr. Meister was Class Advisor.

Now at last we have arrived at the age when we are no longer called "green." This year we enjoyed initiation of the freshmen, since we were the ones to tell them how to dress and how to act.

We have reached the half way mark and are waiting for next year when we'll be upperclassmen.

Junior Class

Well believe it or not, we are at last upperclassmen.

Our class officers for the year were: President, Ronald Ellingson; Vice President, Errol Erstad; Secretary-Treasurer, Jane Williamson; and Student Council Representative, Ronald Smith. Miss Watson and Mr. Lampman were our class advisors.

The arrival of our class rings brought about a great commotion. Naturally we think ours are much prettier than any of the rest.

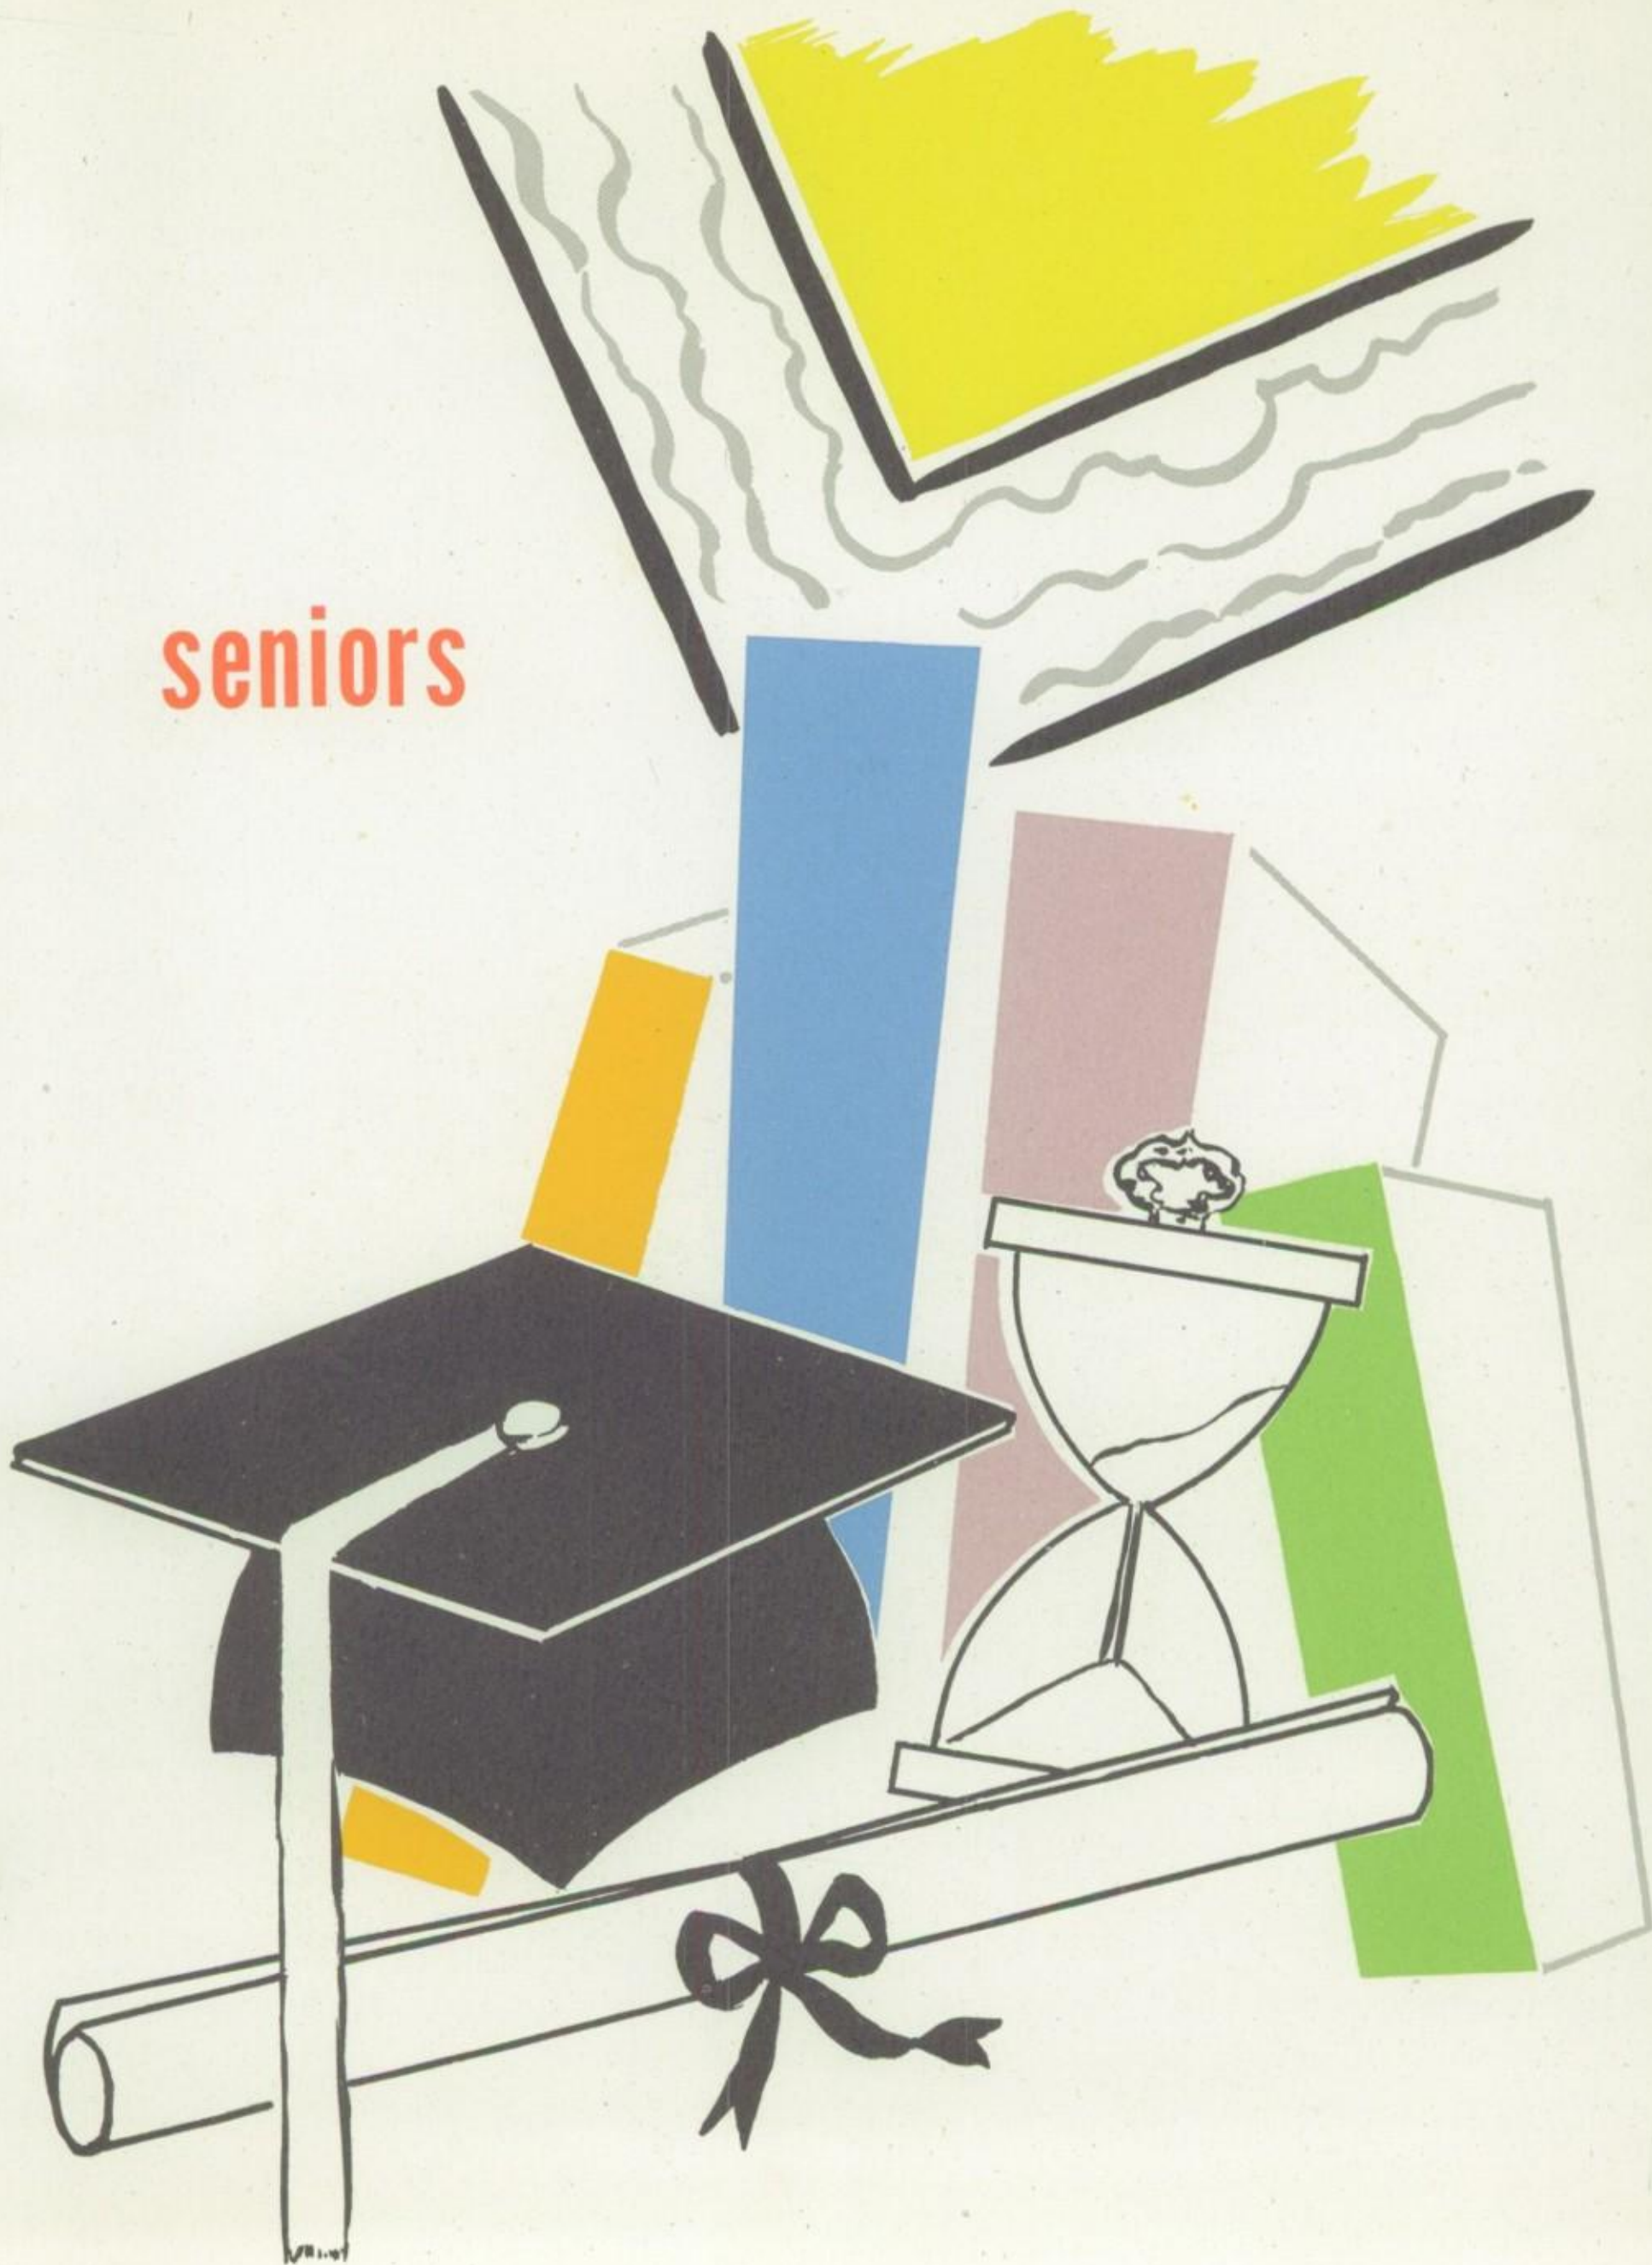

The Junior Prom was a memorable event.

We are eagerly awaiting our Senior year.
